HANDCRAFTED EMBELLISHMENTS

Vol-II

there is a door atop the crown, a hidden one seldom known... none arrives through it though and the ones leaving not return.

The eyes and ears are the doors, so is the mouth and the nose... our human body is itself a house with several doors. Like the eyes and ears, which mean everything to a body, the doors mean everything to a building. They are among the first things seen and the most often a person comes across and they influence a great deal the person who is interacting with the inmate within.

Yet most doors are often just a wooden plank with hinges and bolts. Artisticks metal door embellishments give a new face and an aesthetic value to the usually mundane and rustic portals. The majestic look and exalted sublimity of a copper design or an ornate brass name plate is incomparable.

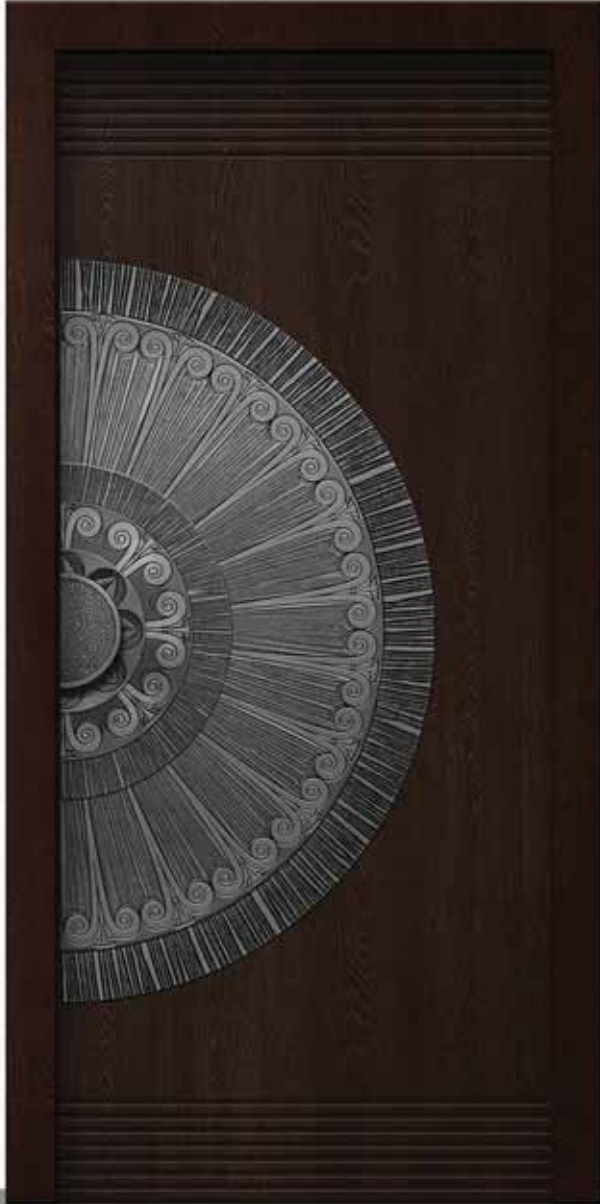

Artisticks proudly presents dwari an elegant collection of traditional, contemporary, devotional, modern and custom made door embellishments from the finest materials, aesthetic design and skilled craftsmanship which leaves a lasting impression spurring an everlasting relationship.
